

Chicago Skyliners Tour of the New United Inflight Training Center and the Alliant Credit Union on Touhy Avenue

Friday, April 24, 2020

930 – 1315

2 (60-minute) (moderate) walking tours This bonus tour consists of two escorted walking tours plus lunch and a visit to the Mainliner Store. The tours and lunch are free; but bring money for shopping at the Mainliner Store.

Tour size is limited

Transportation is on your own to the Touhy Avenue Complex/Free Parking

First, behind the glass walls on the first floor of the old Chicago Reservations Building on Touhy Avenue, we will visit the new Chicago Flight Attendant in-service/recurrent Training Center. We will walk through training classrooms, plane mock-ups, see actual aircraft doors and raft work areas where Flight Attendants spend 2-days completing FAA and United required training.

Second, we will take the short walk over to the Alliant Credit Union and get a behind-the-scenes tour of their operations building while learning about the marketing, fraud, IT, and special services area. We will conclude our tour with a complimentary pizza lunch provided by our Alliant Credit Union friends served in their board room.

Registration will be accepted by email in the order received beginning March 17.

1. To register, email your name exactly as it appears on your government ID, your date of birth, and your file number.
2. Include your cell phone number.
3. Must be a current member of the Chicago Skyliners. (Note that retirees who are not currently members are welcome to join Skyliners. See our website www.chicagoskyliners.org for How to Join.)
4. Skyliners spouses may attend the tour and register as noted above.

Details on when and where to meet will follow when registration is complete.
